(3) If the Inspector is of opinion that any muster roll or register maintained a part of the routine of an establishment gives in respect of all or any of the workers in the establishment the particulars required under sub-section (2), he may, by order in writing, direct that such muster roll or register shall, to the corresponding extent, be maintained in place of, and be treated as, the register of workers, in that establishment.

(4) The Government may make rules prescribing the form of the register of workers, the manner in which it shall be maintained and the period for which it shall be preserved.

(5) The employer shall supply Tickets or cards to every worker in the following manner:

- (a) every permanent worker shall be provided with a permanent departmental ticket showing his number;
- (b) every bodli worker shall be provided with a badli card on which shall be entered the day on which he has worked and which shall be surrendered if he obtains permanent employment.
- (c) every temporary worker shall be provided with a temporary ticket which shall be surrendered on his leaving the job or gaining a permanent employment;
- (d) every casual worker shall be provided with a casual card on which shall be entered the days on which he has worked in the establishment; and
- (e) every apprentice shall be provided with an apprentice card which shall be surrendered if he obtains permanent employment or if he leaves his training.

10. Procedure for leave : (1) A worker who desires to obtain leave of absence shall apply to the employer for the same in writing stating his leave address therein.

(2) The employer or his authoresses officer shall issue orders on the application whthin seen days of the application or two days prior to the commencement of leave applied for, whichever is earlier; Provided that if due to urgent reasons the leave applied for is to commence on the date of application or within three days thereof the order shall be given on the same day.

(3) If the leave asked for is granted, a leave pass shall be issued to the worker.

(4) If the leave asked for is refused or postponed the fact of such refusal or postponement, and the reasons thereof shall be communicated to the worker before the date on which the leave was expected to be commenced. and shall also be recorded in a register to be maintained by the employer for the purpose.

(5) If the worker, after convincing of leave, desires an extension thereof, he shall, if such leave is due to him, apply sufficiently in advance before the expiry of the leave to the employer who shall, as far as practicable send a written reply either granting or refusing extension of leave to the worker to his leave-address.

11. Payment of wages for unveiled leave: If the services of a worker, to whom any annual leave is due, is dispensed with whether as a result of retrenchment, discharge, removal, dismissal, termination, retirement or by reason of his resignation before he has availed of any such leave, the employer shall pay his wages in lieu of the unveiled leave at the rate he is entitled to the payment of wages during the period of leave in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

12. Stoppage of work : (1) The employer may, at any time, in the event of fire, catastrophe, breakdown of machinery, or stoppage of power supply, epidemics, civil commotion or any other cause beyond his control, stop any section or sections of the establishment, wholly or partly for such period as the cause for such stoppage continues to exist.

(2) In the event of such stoppage occurring at any time beyond working hours, the employer shall notify the workers affected, by notice posted on the notice board in the section or department concerned or at a conspicuous place in such establishment before the work is due to begin next.

(3) In the notice mentioned in sub-section (2) direction shall be given indication as to when the work will be resumed and whether such workers are to remain at their place of work at any time before the actual resumption.

(4) In the event of such stoppage occurring at any time during working hours, the workers affected shall be notified, as soon as practicable, in the manner specified in sub-section (2) indicating as to when the work will be resumed and whether such workers are to leave or remain at their place of work.

(5) In the case where workers have been directed to stay at their place of work following such stoppage, the workers so detained may not be paid for the period of such detention if it does not exceed one hour, and the workers so detained shall be paid wages for the whole period of such detention if it exceeds one hour.

(6) If the period of stoppage of work does not exceed one working day, a worker, unless entitled to wages under sub-section (5), may not be paid any wages.

(7) If the period of stoppage of work continues for more than a working day, a worker affected, other than a casual or badli worker, shall be paid wages for day or day by which it will exceed one working day.

(8) If the period of stoppage of work extends beyond three working days, the workers may be laid-off in accordance with the provisions of section 16.

(9) A lay-off mentioned in sub-section (8) shall be effective from the day of stoppage of work and any wage paid to a worker for the first three days may be adjusted against the compensation payable for such subsequent layoff.

(10) For the piece-rate workers affected, their average daily earning in the previous month shall be taken to be the daily wage for the purpose of the sub-section.

13. Closure of establishment : (1) The employer may, in the event of an illegal strike by any section or department of any establishment, close down either wholly or partly such section or department and the workers participated in the illegal strike shall not be paid any wages for such closure.

(2) Where by reason of closing down of any section or department of any establishment under sub-section (1) any other section or department is so affected that it is not possible to keep that section or department open, that section or department may also be closed down and the workers affected thereby shall be paid wages as in the case of lay-off for a period of three days and thereafter they may not be paid any wages for such closure.

(3) The fact of such closure shall be notified by the employer, as soon as practicable, by notice posted on the notice board in the section or department concerned or at a conspicuous place in the establishment and the fact of resumption of work, following such closure, shall likewise be notified.

14. Calculation of 'One year', 'six months' and 'wages' in certain cases : (1) For the purpose of this chapter, a worker who, during the preceding twelve calendar months, has actually worked in an establishment for not less than two hundred and forty days and one under and twenty days as the case may be shall be deemed to have completed 'one year' or 'six months' respectively of continuous service in the establishment.

(2) For the purpose of calculation of the number of days on which a worker actually worked in an establishment as mentioned in sub-section (1) the days on which-

- (a) the day during which he has been laid-off;
- (b) he has been on leave with or without wages due to sickness or accident;
- (c) he has been on legal strike or out of work due to illegal lock-out;
- (d) in the case of female worker, she has been on maternity leave not exceeding sixteen weeks; shall be counted.

(3) For the purpose of calculation of compensation under section 19,20, or 23 or wages under section 22, 23, 26, or 27 'wages' shall mean the average of the basic wages and dearness allowance and ad-hoc or interim pay, if any, paid to the worker during the period of twelve months immediately preceding the date of his retrenchment, dismissal, removal, discharge, retirement or termination of employment, as the case may be.

15. Restrictions of application of sections 12, 16, 17, and 18. : Notwithstanding anything contained elsewhere in this chapter, the provisions of sections 12, 16, 17, and 18 shall not apply to any establishment in which five or more workers are not employed, or were not employed on any day of the preceding twelve months.

16. Right of laid-off workers for compensation : (1) Whenever a worker, other than a badli or casual worker, whose name is borne on the muster-rolls of an establishment and who has completed not less than one year of continuous service under the employer is laid-off, he shall be paid compensation by the employer for all days during which he is so laid-off, except for such weekly holidays as may intervene.

(2) The amount of compensation as mentioned in sub-section (1) shall be equal to half of the total of the basic wages and dearness allowance, and ad-hoc or interim pay, if any, and the full amount of housing allowance, if any, that would have been payable to him had he not been so laid-off.

(3) A badli worker whose name is borne on the muster-rolls of an establishment shall cease to be regarded as 'badli' for the purpose of this section, if he has completed one year of continuous service in the establishment.

(4) No worker shall, unless there is an agreement to the contrary between the worker and the employer, be entitled to the payment of compensation under this section for more than forty-five days during any calendar year.

(5) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (4), if during a calendar year a worker is laid-off for more than forty-five days, whether continuously or intermittently, and the lay off after the expiry of the first forty-five days comprises period or periods of fifteen days or more, the worker shall, unless there is an agreement to the contrary between the worker and the employer, be paid compensation for all the days comprised in every subsequent period of lay-off for fifteen days or more.

(6) The amount of compensation as mentioned in sub-section (5) shall be equal to one-fourth of the total of the basic wages and dearness allowance, and ad-hoc or interim pay, if any, and the full amount of housing allowance, if any.

(7) In any case where, during a calendar year, a worker is to be laid off after the first forty-five days as aforesaid, for any continuous period of fifteen days or more, the employer may, instead of laying-off such a worker, retrench him under section 20.

17. Muster-roll for laid-off workers : Notwithstanding that the workers employed in an establishment have been laid-off, the employer shall maintain a muster-roll, and provide for the making of entries therein by or for the laid-off workers whom may present themselves for work at the establishment at the appointed time during normal working hours.

18. Laid-off workers not entitled to compensation uncertain cases : (1) Notwithstanding anything contained elsewhere in this chapter, no compensation shall be payable to a worker who has been laid-off-

(a) if he refuses to accept on the same wages, any alternative employment not requiring any special skill or previous experience, in the same establishment for which he has been laid-off, or in any other establishment belonging to the same employer and situated in the same town or village or situated within a radius of eight kilometers from the establishment;

(b) If he does not present himself for work at the establishment at the appointed time during normal working hours at least once a day if so required by the employer.

(2) For the purpose of sub-section (1) (b), every laid-off worker who presents himself for work at the establishment at the time appointed for the purpose during normal working hours on any day and is not given employment by the employer within two hours of his so presenting himself, shall be deemed to have been laid-off for that day within the meaning of this section.

(3) If a laid-off worker who presents himself for work as mentioned in sub-section (2), instead of being given employment at the commencement of any shift for any day, is asked to present himself for the purpose during the second half of the shift for the day, and if he so presents himself, he shall be deemed to have been laid-off only for one-half of that day, the other half being treated as on duty, irrespective of the fact whether he is given work or not.

19. Death benefit : If a worker dies while in service after a continuous service of not less than three years, his nominee or in the absence of an nominee, his dependant shall be paid by the employer a compensation at the rate of thirty days wages for every completed year of service, or for any part thereof in excess of six months or gratuity, if any, whichever is higher, in addition to any other benefit to which the deceased worker would have been entitled had he retired from service:

Provided that if such worker is covered by any compulsory insurance scheme of the establishment, or, if any compensation is payable for such death under chapter XII, the worker shall be entitled to whichever is higher.

20. Retrenchment : (1) A worker employed in an establishment may be retrenched from service on the ground of redundancy.

(2) No worker who has been in continuous service for not less than one year under an employer shall be retrenched by the employer unless-

(a) The worker has been given one month's notice in writing, indicating the reasons for retrenchment, or the worker has been paid in lieu of such notice, wages for the period of notice;

(b) a copy of the notice is sent to the chief Inspector or any other officer authorized by him and also to the collective bargaining agent in the establishment, if any; and

(c) he has been paid, compensation which shall be equivalent to thirty days wages or gratuity for every completed year of service if any, whichever is higher.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (2), in the case of retrenchment of a worker under section 16(7), no notice as mentioned in sub-section (2) (a) shall be necessary; but the worker so retrenched, shall be paid fifteen days wages in addition to the compensation or gratuity, as the case may be, which may be payable to him under sub-section (2) (c).

(4) Where any worker belonging to a particular category of workers is to be retrenched, the employer shall, in the absence of any agreement between him and the worker in this behalf, retrench the worker who was the last person to be employed in that category.

21. Re-employment of retrenched workers : where any number of workers are retrenched, and the employer proposes to take into his employ any worker within a period of one year from the date of such retrenchment, he shall give an opportunity to the retrenched workers belonging to the particular category concerned by sending a notice to their last known addresses, to offer themselves for employment, and the retrenched workers who so offer themselves for re-employment shall have preference over other retrenched workers, each having priority according to the length of his service under the employer.

22. Discharge from service : (i) A worker may be discharged from service for reasons of physical or mental incapacity or continued ill-health certified by a registered medical practitioner.

(2) If a worker who has completed not less than one year of continuous service is so discharged, he shall be paid by the employer compensation at the rate of thirty days wages for every completed year of service, or gratuity, if any whichever is higher.

23. Punishment for conviction and misconduct : (1) Notwithstanding anything regarding lay-off, retrenchment, discharge and termination of service as provided elsewhere in this Act, a worker may be dismissed without prior notice or pay in lieu thereof if he is-

(a) convicted for any criminal offence ; or

(b) he is found guilty of misconduct under section 24.

(2) Any worker found guilty of misconduct may, instead of being dismissed under sub-section (1), in consideration of any extenuating circumstances, be awarded any of the following punishments, namely:

- (a) Removal;
- (b) Reduction to a lower post, grade or scale of pay for a period not exceeding one year;
- (c) Stoppage of promotion for a period not exceeding one year;
- (d) Withholding of increment for a period not exceeding one year;
- (e) fine;
- (f) suspension without wages and subsistence allowance for a period not exceeding seven days;
- (g) censure or warning.

(3) A worker who is dismissed under sub-section (1) or removed as a measure of punishment under sub-section (2) (a) shall, if his continuous service is not less than one year, be paid by the employer compensation at the rate of fourteen days wages for every completed year of service, or gratuity, if any, whichever is higher;

Provided that no compensation shall be payable if the worker is dismissed for misconduct as specified in sub-section (4) (b)

(4) The following acts and omissions shall be treated as misconduct -

- (a) willful insubordination or disobedience, whether alone or in combination with others to any lawful or reasonable order of a superior;

Work on or near machinery in motion : (1) Where in any establishment it becomes necessary to examine any part of machinery referred to in section 61 while the machinery is in motion or as a result o such examination to carry out any mounting or shipping of belts, Lubrication or other adjusting operation while the machinery is in motion such examination or operation shall be made or carried out only by a specially trained adult male worker wearing tight-fitting clothing whose name has been recorded in the register prescribed in this behalf and while he so engaged such worker shall not handle a belt at a moving pulley unless the belt is less than fifteen centimeters in width and unless the belt-joint is either laced or flush with the belt.

(2) The Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, prohibit, in any specified establishment, the cleaning, lubricating, or adjusting by any person of specified part of machinery when those parts are in motion.

65. Striking gear and devices for cutting off power : (1) In every establishment-

(a) suitable striking gear or other efficient mechanical appliance shall be provided and maintained and used to move driving belts to and from fast and loose pulleys which form part of the transmission machinery, and such gear or appliances shall be so constructed, placed and maintained as to prevent the belt from cropping back on the first pulleys;

(b) driving belts when not in use shall not be allowed to rest or ride upon shafting in motion.

(2) In every establishment suitable devices for cutting off power in emergencies from running machinery shall be provided and maintained in every work-room.

66. Self-action machines : No traversing part of a self-acting machine in any establishment and no material carried thereon shall, if the space over which it runs is a space over which any person is liable to pass whether in the course of his employment or other distance of forty five centimeters from any fixed structure which is not part of the machine:

Provided that the chief Inspector may permit the continued use of a machine installed before the commencement of this Act which does not comply with the requirements of this section on such conditions for ensuring safety as he may think fit to impose.

67. Casing of new machinery : In all machinery driven by power and installed in any establishment after the commencement of this Act-

(a) every set screw, belt or key or any revolving shaft, spindle wheel or pinion shall be so, sunk, encased or otherwise effectively guarded to prevent danger; and

(b) all spur, worm and other toothed or friction gearing which does not require frequent adjustment while in motion shall be completely encased unless it is so situated as to be as safe it would be if it were completely encased.

68. Cranes and other lifting machinery : The following provisions shall apply in-

(a) every part thereof, including the working gear, whether fixed or movable, ropes and chains and anchoring and fixing appliances shall be-

(i) of good construction, sound material and adequate strength,

(ii) properly maintained,

(iii) thoroughly examined by a competent person at least once in every period of twelve months and a register shall be kept containing the prescribed particulars of every such examination;

(b) no such machinery shall be loaded beyond the safe working load which shall be plainly marked thereon; and

(c) while any person is employed or working on or near the wheel-track of a traveling crane in any place, where he would be liable to be struck by the crane, effective measures shall be taken to ensure that crane does not approach within six meter of that place.

69. Hoists and lifts : (i) In every establishment every hoist and lift shall be-

(a) of good mechanical construction, sound material and adequate strength,

(b) properly maintained,

- (c) shall be thoroughly examined by competent person at least once in every period of six months, and a register shall be kept containing the prescribed particulars of every such examination;
- (2) every hoist way and lift way shall be sufficiently protected by an enclosure fitted with gates, and the hoist or lift and every such enclosure shall be so constructed as to prevent any person or thing from being trapped between any part of the hoist or lift and any fixed structure or moving part;
- (3) the maximum safe working load shall be plainly marked on every hoist or lift and no load greater than such load shall be carried thereon;
- (4) the cage of every hoist or lift used for carrying persons shall be fitted with a gate on each side from which access is afforded to a landing;
- (5) every gate referred to in subsection (2) or (4) shall be fitted with interlocking or other efficient device to secure that the gate cannot be opened except when the cage is at the landing and that the cage cannot be moved unless the gate is closed.
- (6) The following additional requirements shall apply to hoists and lifts used for carrying persons and installed or reconstructed in an establishment after the commencement of this Act, namely-
- (a) Where the cage is supported by rope or chain there shall be at least two ropes or chains separately connected with its attachments shall be capable of carrying the whole weight of the cage together with its maximum load;
 - (b) Efficient devices shall be provided and maintained capable of supporting the cage together with its maximum load in the event of breakage of the ropes, chains or attachments;
 - (c) an efficient automatic device shall be provided and maintained to prevent the cage from over-running.
- (7) The chief Inspector may permit the continued use of a hoist or lift installed in an establishment before the commencement of this Act which does not fully comply with the provisions of sub-section (1), (2), (3), (4) and (5) upon such conditions for ensuring safety as he may think fit to impose.

70. Revolving machinery: (i) In every room in an establishment in which the process of grinding is carried on, there shall be permanently affixed to, or placed near, each machine in use a notice indicating the following-

- (a) maximum safe working peripheral speed of every grind stone or abrasive wheel;
 - (b) the speed of the shaft or spindle upon which the wheel is mounted;
 - (c) the diameter of the pulley upon such shaft or spindle necessary to secure such safe working peripheral speed.
- (2) The speeds indicated in notices under sub-section (1) shall not be exceeded.
- (3) Effective measures shall be taken in every revolving vessel, cage, basket, flywheel, pulley dice or similar appliance driven by power is not exceeded.

71. Pressure plant : If in any establishment any part of the plant or machinery used in manufacturing process is operated at a pressure above atmospheric pressure, effective measures shall be taken to ensure that the safe working pressure of such part is not exceeded.

72. Floors, stairs and means of access : In every establishment -

- (a) all floors, stairs, passages and gangways shall be of sound construction and properly maintained and where it is necessary to ensure safety steps, stairs, passages and gangways shall be provided with substantial handrails;
- (b) there shall, so far as is reasonably practicable, be provided and maintained safe means of access to every place at which any person is, at any time, required to work; and
- (c) all floors, ways and stairways shall be clean, wide and clear of all obstructions.

73. Pits, sumps, opening in floors, etc. : (1) In every establishment, every fixed vessel, sump, tank, pit or opening in the ground or in a floor which, by reason of its depth, situation, construction or contents is or may be a source of danger, shall be either securely covered or securely fenced.

74. Excessive weights: No person shall be employed in any establishment to lift, carry or move any load so heavy as to be likely to cause him injury.

75. Protection of eyes : The Government may, in respect of any manufacturing process carried on in any establishment, by rules, require that effective screens of suitable goggles shall be provided for the protection of persons employed on, or in the immediate vicinity of a process which involves-

- (a) risk of injury to the eyes from particles or fragments thrown off in the course of the process, or
- (b) risk to the eyes by reason of exposure to excessive light or heat.

76. Powers to require specifications of defective parts or tests of stability : If it appears to the inspector that any building or part of a building or any part of the ways, machinery or plant in an establishment, is in such a condition that it may be dangerous to human life or safety, he may serve on the employer of the establishment an order in writing, requiring him before a specified date-

- (a) to furnish such drawings, specifications and other particulars as may be necessary to determine whether such building, ways, machinery or plant can be used with safety, or
- (b) to carry out such tests as may be necessary to determine the strength or quality or any specified parts and to inform the Inspector of the result thereof.

77. Precautions against dangerous fumes : (1) In any establishment no person shall enter or be permitted to enter any chamber, tank, vat pit, pipe, flue or other confined space in which dangerous fumes are likely to be present to such an extent as to involve risks of persons being overcome thereby, unless it is provided with a manhole of such size, as may be prescribed or other effective means of egress.

(2) No portable electric light of voltage exceeding twenty-four volts shall be permitted in any establishment for use inside any confined space such as is referred to in sub-section (1) and where the fumes present are likely to be permitted to be used in such confined space.

(3) No person in any establishment shall enter or be permitted to enter any such confined space until all practicable means have been taken to remove any fumes which may be present and to prevent any ingress of fume and unless either-

- (a) a certificate in writing has been given by a competent person, based on a test carried out by himself, that the space is free from dangerous fumes and fit for persons to enter, or
- (b) the worker is wearing suitable breathing apparatus and a belt securely attached to a rope, the free end of which is held by a person standing outside the confined space.

(4) Suitable breathing apparatus, reviving apparatus and belts and ropes shall, in every establishment, be kept ready for instant use beside any such confined space. As aforesaid which any person as entered, and all such apparatus shall be periodically examined and certified by a competent person to be fit for use; and a sufficient number of persons employed in every establishment shall be trained and practiced in the use of all such apparatus and in the method of restoring respiration.

(5) No person shall be permitted to enter in any establishment, any boiler furnace, boiler, flue chamber, tank, at, pipe or other confined space for the purpose of working or making any examination therein until it has been sufficiently cooled by ventilation or otherwise to be safe for persons to enter.

78. Explosive or inflammable dust, gas, etc. : (1) where in any establishment any manufacturing process produces dust, gas, fume or vapour of such character and to such extent as to be likely to explode on ignition, all practicable measures shall be taken to prevent any such explosion by- (a) effective enclosure of the plant or machinery used in the process;

- (b) removal or prevention of the accumulation of such dust, gas, fume or vapour;
- (c) Exclusion or effective enclosure of all possible sources of ignition.

(2) Where in any establishment the plant or machinery used in a process is not so constructed as to withstand the probable pressure which such an explosion as aforesaid would produce, all practicable measure shall be taken to restrict the spread and effects of the explosion by the provision in the plant or machinery of chokes,

(3) Where any part of the plant or machinery in an establishment contains any explosive or inflammable gas or vapour under pressure greater than atmospheric pressure, that part shall not be opened except in accordance with the following provisions, namely-

- (a) before the fastening of any joint of any pipe connected with the part of the fastening of the cover of any opening into the part is loosened, any flow of the gas or vapour into the part or any such pipe shall be effectively stopped by a stop-valve or other means;
- (b) Before any such fastening as aforesaid is removed, all practicable measures shall be taken to reduce to pressure of the gas or vapour in the part or pipe to atmospheric pressure;
- (c) where any such fastening, as aforesaid, has been loosened or removed, effective measures shall be taken to prevent any explosive or inflammable gas or vapour from entering the part or pipe until the fastening has been secured; or as the case may be, securely replaced:

Provided that the provisions of this sub-section shall not apply in the case of plant or machinery installed in the open air.

(4) No plant, tank or vessel which contains or has contained any explosive or inflammable substance shall be subjected in any establishment to any welding, brazing, soldering or cutting operation which involves the application of heat unless adequate measures have been first taken to remove such substance and any fumes arising there from o to render such substance shall be allowed to enter such plant, tank or vessel after any such operation until the mental has cooled sufficiently to prevent any risk of igniting the substance.

CHAPTER VII

SPECIAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO HEALTH HYGIENE AND SAFETY

79. Dangerous operations : Where the Government is satisfied that any operation carried on in an establishment exposes any person employed in it to a serious risk of bodily injury, poisoning, or disease, it may make rules applicable to such establishment or class of establishments in which such operation is carried on-

- (a) specifying the operation and declaring it to be hazardous;
- (b) prohibiting or restricting the employment of women, adolescents or children in the operation;
- (c) providing for the periodical medical examination of persons employed in the operation and prohibiting the employment of persons not certified as fit for such employment;
- (d) providing for the protection of all persons employed in the operation or in the vicinity of the places where it is carried on and the use of any specified materials or processes in connection with the operation; and
- (e) notice specifying use and precautions regarding use of any corrosive chemicals.

80. Notice to be given of accidents : (1) When any accident occurs in an establishment causing loss of life or bodily injury, or when an accidental explosion, ignition, outbreak of fire or irruption, outbreak of fire or irruption of water or fumes occurs in an establishment, the employer of the establishment shall give notice of the occurrence to the Inspector within two working days.

(2) Where an accident mentioned in sub-section (1) causes bodily injury resulting in the compulsory absence from work of the person injured for a period exceeding forty eight hours it shall be entered in a register in the prescribed form.

(3) A copy of the entries in the register referred to in sub-section (2) shall be sent by the employer of the establishment, within fifteen days after the 30th day of June and the 31st day of December in each year, to the chief Inspector.

81. Notice of certain dangerous occurrences : Where in an establishment, any dangerous occurrence of such nature as may be prescribed, occurs, whether causing any bodily injury or not, the employer of the establishment shall send notice thereof to the Inspector within three working days.

82. Notice of certain disease : (1) Where any working in an establishment contracts any disease specified in the second schedule, the employer or the worker concerned or any person authorized by him in this behalf shall send notice thereof to the Inspector in such prescribed form and within such time as may be prescribed by Rules.

(2) If any registered medical practitioner attends on a person who is, or has been employed in an establishment and who is, or is believed by such medical practitioner to be, suffering from any disease specified in the second Schedule, the medical practitioner shall, without delay, send a report in writing to the chief Inspector stating-

- (a) the name and postal address of the patient;

(b) the disease from which he believes the patient to be suffering;

(c) the name and address of the establishment in which the patient is or was last employed.

(3) The Government may add to or subtract from the Second Schedule any disease by notification in the official Gazette.

83. Power to direct enquiry into cases of accident or disease : (1) When any accidental explosion, ignition, outbreak of fire or irruption of water or other accident has occurred in any establishment or when any disease specified in the second schedule has been or suspected to have contracted in any establishment, the government, if it is of opinion that a formal enquiry into the cases, of, and circumstance attending, the accident or disease ought to be held, may appoint a competent person to holding the enquiry.

(2) The person appointed to hold any such enquiry shall have all the power of a Civil Court under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 for the purpose of enforcing the attendance of witnesses and compelling the production of documents and material objects; and every person required by such person as aforesaid to furnish any information shall be deemed to be legally bound to do so within the meaning of section 176 of the penal code.

(3) Any person holding an enquiry under this section may exercise such of the powers of an Inspector under this Act as he may think it necessary or expedient to exercise for the purposes of the enquiry.

(4) The person holding enquiry shall make a report to the Government stating the causes of the accident and its circumstances, and adding any observations, which he and any of the assessors may think fit to make.

(5) The Government may, cause report to be punished at such time and in such manner as it may think fit.

84. Power to take samples: (1) An Inspector may, at any time during the normal working hours, informing the employer of an establishment, take, in the manner hereinafter provided, a sufficient sample of any substance used or intended to be used in the establishment such use being, in the opinion of the Inspector in contravention of the provisions of this Act or of the rules, or likely to cause bodily injury to or injury to the health of, workers in establishment.

(2) Where the Inspector takes such sample, he shall, in the presence of the employer, unless he willfully absents himself, divide the sample into three portions and effectively seal and suitable mark them shall permit the employer to add his own seal and mark thereon.

(3) The employer shall, if the Inspector so requires, provide the appliances for dividing, sealing and marking the sample taken under this section.

(4) The Inspector shall forthwith give one portion of the sample to the employer, send the second portion to a Government Analyst for analysis and report thereon and retain the third portion for production to the court before which proceedings, if any are instituted in respect of the substance.

(5) Any document, purporting to be a report under the hand of any Government analyst upon any substance submitted to him for analysis and report under this section, may be used as evidence in any proceedings instituted in respect of the substance.

85. Powers of Inspector in case of certain danger : (1) If, in respect of any matter for which no express provision is made by or under this Act, it appears to the Inspector that any establishment or any part thereof or any matter, thing or practice in or connected with the establishment or with the control, management or direction thereof, is dangerous to human life or safety or thereof, is dangerous to human life or safety or defective so as to threaten, or tend, to the bodily injury of any person, he may give notice in writing thereof to the employer of the establishment, and shall state in the notice the particulars in respect of which he considers the establishment, or part thereof, or the matter, thing or practice, to be dangerous or defective and require the same to be remedied within such time and in such manner as he may specify in the notice.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the provisions contained in sub-section (1), the Inspector may, by order in writing direct the employer prohibiting the extraction or reduction of pillars in any part of such establishment if, in his opinion, such operation is likely to cause the crushing of pillars or the premature collapse of any part of the workings or otherwise endanger the establishment,

(3) If the Inspector is of opinion that there is urgent and immediate danger to the life or safety of any person employed in any establishment or part thereof, he may, by an order in writing containing a statement of the grounds of his opinion, prohibit, the employer concerned, until he is satisfied that the danger is removed, the employment in or about the establishment or part thereof of any person whose employment is not, in his opinion, reasonably necessary for the purpose of removing the danger.

(4) The employer, if is aggrieved by the order under sub-section (3) may, within ten days of the receipt of the order, appeal against the same to the chief Inspector who may confirm modify or cancel the order.

(5) The Inspector making an order under sub-section (1) or (3), shall forthwith report the same to the Government and shall inform the employer concerned that such report has been so made.

(6) The chief Inspector, shall forthwith report to the Government any order, except the order of cancellation passed by him under sub-section (4), and shall also inform the employer concerned that such report has been so made.

130. Other deductions from wages : Deductions under section 125 (2) (j) (k) and (l) shall be subject to such conditions as the Government may impose.

131. Payment of undisturbed wages in cases of death of workers : (1) subject to other provisions of this chapter, all amounts payable to a worker as wages shall, if such amounts could not or cannot be paid on account of his death or on account of his whereabouts not being known before payment,-

(a) be paid to the person nominated by him in this behalf in accordance with the rules;

(b) where no such nomination has been made or where for any reasons such amounts cannot be paid to the person so nominated, be deposited with the labour court who shall deal with the amounts so deposited in such manner as may be prescribed.

(2) Where, in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (1), all amounts payable to a worker as wages are paid by the employer to the person nominated by the worker; or are deposited by the employer with the Labour court, the employer shall be discharged of his liability in respect of payment of those wages.

132. Claims arising out of deductions from wages or delay in payment of wages : (1) Where contrary to the provisions of this Act any deduction has been made from the wages of a worker, or any payment of wages has been delayed, or payment of wages or gratuity under any rule or his dues in the provident fund delayed, such person himself, or in case of his death any of his legal heirs or any legal representative, may apply to the Labour Court for recovery of such unpaid wages or delayed wages or any other dues;

(2) Every such application shall be presented within twelve months from the date on which the deduction from the wages was made or from the date on which the Payment of the wages was due to be made, as the case may be, to the Labour Court within whose jurisdiction on the place where the payment was made;

Provided that, any application may be admitted after the said period of twelve months when the applicant satisfies the Labour Court that he had sufficient cause for not making the application within such period.

(3) When any application under sub-section (1) is entertained, the Labour Court shall hear the applicant and the employer or other person responsible for the payment of wages under this chapter, or give them an opportunity of being heard and take necessary evidence, and, may, direct the refund to the applicant of the amount deducted, or the payment of the delayed wages.

(4) Any order given under sub-section (3) shall not prejudice any other penalty to which such employer or other person is liable under this Act.

(5) Labour Court in passing an order under sub-section (3) may direct the employer or other person responsible for payment of wages to pay twenty-five per cent of the wages of the worker as compensation.

(6) No direction for the payment of compensation under sub-section (5) shall be made in the case of delayed wages if the Labour Court is satisfied that the delay was due to-

- (a) a bonafide error or bonafide dispute as to the amount payable to the worker, or
- (b) the occurrence of an emergency, or the existence of exceptional circumstances, such that the person responsible for the payment of the wages was unable, though exercising reasonable diligence, to make prompt payment, or
- (c) the failure of the worker to apply for or accept payment.

(7) If the Labour court while hearing any application under this section is satisfied that it was either malicious or vexatious, the Labour court may direct that a penalty not exceeding two – hundred taka paid to the employer or other person responsible for the payment of wages by the person presenting the application.

133. Court fees in proceeding under section 132 : (1) In any proceedings under section 132, the applicant shall not be liable to pay any Court fees other than fees payable for service of process in respect of such proceedings.

(2) Where the applicant succeeds, in such proceedings the labour Court hearing the application shall calculate the amount of Court fees which would have been payable if the application were a plaint in a civil suit for recovery of money, and direct the employer or other person responsible for payment of the wages under section 121 to pay such amount.

(3) If the amount directed to be paid under sub-section (2) is not paid within the time specified by the Labour Court, it shall be recoverable as a public demand.

134. Single application in respect of a class of workers whose wages have not been paid or wages deducted : (1) A single application may be presented under section 132 on behalf of in respect of any number of workers belonging to the same unpaid group whose wages have been delayed or deducted, and in such case compensation that may be awarded under section 132(5),

(2) The labour Court may deal with any number of separate pending applications, presented under section 132 in respect of workers belonging to the same unpaid group, as a single application presented under sub-section (1), and the provisions of that sub-section shall apply accordingly.

(3) For the purpose of this section, 'unpaid workers includes in the same group' shall mean the workers who are borne on the same establishment and if their wages for the same wage-period or period have remained unpaid.

135. Appeal : (1) An appeal against an order passed by the Labour court under section 132, may be preferred, within thirty days of the date on which the order was passed, before the Tribunal.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1) no appeal by the employer or other person responsible for the payment of wages lie, if the total sum directed to be paid by way of wage and compensation exceeds one thousand taka, or by any worker or, if he has died, by any of his heirs, or by his legal representative, if the total amount of wages claimed exceeds five hundred taka, or

(3) No appeal shall lie unless the memorandum of appeal is accompanied by a certificate of the Labour court to the effect that the appellant has deposited with the Labour court the amount payable under the direction appealed against.

(4) Save as provided in the case of appeal under this section all other orders passed by the Labour court under section 132 shall be final.

(5) The provisions of section 5 of the Limitation act, 1908 (LX of 1908) shall be applicable to appeal under this section.

136. Conditional attachment of property of employer or other person responsible for payment of wages : (1) Where at any time-

- (a) after an application has been made under section 132, the Labour court, or
- (b) after an appeal has been filed under section 135, the Tribunal;

is satisfied that the employer or other person responsible for the payment or wages under section 121 is likely to evade payment of any amount that may be directed to be paid under section 132 or 135, the Labour court or the Tribunal, as the case may be, after giving the employer or other person an opportunity of being heard, may direct the attachment of so much of the property of the employer or other person responsible for the payment of wages:

Provided that, if there is possibility of defeating the purpose for the cause of delay, the said Court or Tribunal, before giving the opportunity of being heard, may pass such order of attachment.

Provided further that such amount of property may be attached, which, in the opinion of the Labour Court or the Tribunal, sufficient to satisfy the amount which may be payable under the direction.

(2) All provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (V of 1908), relating to attachment before judgment, apply to any order for attachment

137. Power to recover from employer in certain cases : When the Labour Court is unable to recover from any person, other than an employer, responsible under section 121 for the payment of wages any amount directed by such court or tribunal, as the case may be, to be paid by such person, it shall recover the amount from the employer.

CHAPTER: XI WAGES BOARDS

138. Establishment of Minimum wages Board : (1) The Government shall establish a board to be called the minimum wages board.

(2) the minimum wages board, hereinafter referred to in this chapter as the wages board, shall consist of-

- (a) a chairman;
- (b) one independent member;
- (c) one member to represent the employers, and
- (d) one member to represent the workers.

(3) For the purpose of discharging the functions specified in section 139, the wages board shall also include-

- (a) one member to represent the employers of the industry concerned; and
- (b) one member to represent the workers engaged in such industry.

(4) The chairman and the other members of the wages board shall be appointed by the Government.

(5) The chairman and the independent member of the wages board shall be appointed from persons with adequate knowledge of industrial labour and economic conditions of the country who are not connected with any industry or associated with any trade union of workers or employers.

(6) The member to represent the employers and the member to represent the workers under subsection (2) or (3) shall be appointed after considering nominations, if any, of such organizations as the Government considers to be representative organizations of such employers and workers respectively.

Provided that, if no nomination is received for the representatives of the employers or workers inspite of more than one effort, the Government appoint such persons whom the Government considers to be fit in its opinion to be representative of such employers and workers respectively.

139. Recommendation of minimum rates of wages for certain workers : (1) Where, in respect of any industry, the Government is of the opinion that, in view of the prevailing rates of wages of workers engaged in that industry, it is reasonable and necessary to fix the minimum rates of wages for all or any class of workers employed in such industry, it may direct the wages Board to recommend, after such enquiry as the wages board thinks fit, the minimum rates of wages for such workers or class of workers.

Explanation :- The Government, may upon an application made to it, by the employer or workers, or both the parties, consider fixation of minimum rates of wages for the workers employed in that industry.

(2) The wages board shall make its recommendation within a period of six months from the date of receipt of such direction made to it:

Provided that the Government may extend this period if the wages board so request.

(3) In pursuance of a direction under sub-section (1), the wages board may recommend minimum rates of wages for all classes of workers in any grade and, in such recommendation, may specify-

- (a) the minimum rates of wages for time-work and piece-work; and
- (b) the minimum time-rates specifically for the workers employed on piece work.

(4) The time-rates recommended by the wages board may be on hourly, daily, weekly or monthly basis.

(5) In its recommendation the wages board shall indicate whether the minimum rates of wages should be adopted uniformly throughout the country or with such local variations for such areas as are specified therein.

(6) The minimum rates of wages for any industry may be re-fixed after every five years as may be directed by the Government.

140. Power to declare minimum rates of wages : (1) Upon receipt of a recommendation of the wages board under section 139, the Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, declare that the minimum rates of wages recommended by the wages board for the various workers shall, subject to such exception as may be specified in the notification, be the minimum rates of wages for such workers.

(2) If the Government considers that such recommendation is not, in any respect, equitable to the employers or the workers, if any, within thirty days of receipt of the recommendation, refer it back to the wages board for reconsideration with such comments thereon and giving such information relating thereto as the Government may think fit.

(3) Where a recommendation is referred back to the wages board under sub-section (2), the wages board shall reconsider it after taking into account the comments made and information given by the government and, if necessary, shall hold further enquiry and submit to the government a revised recommendation, or if it considers that no revision or change in the recommendation is called for, make report to that effect stating reasons there for.

(4) Upon receipt of the recommendation of the wages board under sub-section (3), the Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, declare that the minimum rates of wages recommended under that sub-section by the wages board for various workers shall, subject to such modifications and exceptions as may be specified in the notification, be the minimum rates of wages for such workers.

(5) Unless any date is specified for the purpose in the notification under sub-section (4), the declaration there under shall take effect on the date of publication of such notification.

(6) Where after publication of a notification under sub-section (1) or (4) or after minimum rates of wages declared there under have taken effect, it comes to the notice of the Government that there is a mistake in the minimum rates of wages so declared, it may refer the matter to the wages board and any such reference shall be deemed to be a reference under sub-section (2).

(7) The minimum rates of wages declared under this section shall be final and shall not, in any manner, be questioned by any persons in any Court or before any authority.

141. Factors to be considered in making its recommendation : In making its recommendation the wages board shall take into consideration cost of living, standard of living, cost of production, productivity, price of products, business capability, economic and social conditions of the country and of the locality concerned and other relevant factors.

142. Periodical review of minimum rates of wages : (1) The wages board shall review its recommendations if any change in the factors specified in section 141 and other relevant factors so demand, and recommend to the Government any amendment, modification or revision of the minimum rates of wages declared under section 140:

Provided that no recommendation shall be reviewed earlier than one year from the date on which it was made, unless the special circumstances of a case so require, and later than three years from such date.

(2) Review and recommendation under this section shall be deemed to be an enquiry and recommendation under section 139 and the provisions of this chapter shall, as far as may be, apply accordingly.

143. Constitution of Newspaper workers 'wage board: (1) The Government may, if it thinks fit, by notification in the official Gazette, constitute a separate board, to be called the Newspaper workers' wage board, for fixing rates of wages of newspaper workers.

(2) The Board hereinafter referred to as this Chapter as the Newspaper wage Board, shall consist of a chairman and an equal number of member to represent the employers in relation to newspaper establishments and newspaper workers, to be appointed by the Government.

144. Fixation of wages for newspaper workers : (1) In fixing rates of wages in respect of newspaper workers the Newspaper wage board shall take into consideration the cost of living, the prevalent rates of wages of comparable employment's in Government, Corporations and private sectors, the circumstances relating to the newspaper industry in different regions of the country, and to any other circumstances which to the Newspaper wage board may seem relevant.

(2) The Newspaper wage board may fix rates of wages for time work and for piece-work.

(3) The decision of newspaper wage board fixing rates of wages shall be communicated, as soon as practicable, to the Government.

145. Publication of decision of Newspaper wage board : (1) The Government shall examine the decision of the Newspaper wage board and shall, within a period of three months from the date of its receipt publish by notification in the official Gazette with modifications as may be deemed necessary.

(2) The decisions of the Newspaper wage board, with modifications, if any, and published under sub-section (1) shall come into operation with effect from such date as may be specified in the notification, and where no date is so specified, it shall come into operation on the date of its publication.

146. Power of Newspaper wage board to fix interim rates of wages : (1) Where the newspaper wage board is of the opinion that it is necessary so to do, it may, by notification in the official Gazette, fix interim rates of wages.

(2) Any such interim rate of wages so fixed shall be binding on all employers in relation to newspaper establishments, and every newspaper worker shall be entitled to be paid wages at a rate which shall, in no case, be less than such interim rate of wages.

(3) Any such interim rate of wages fixed, shall remain in force until the decision of the Newspaper wage board comes into operation under section 145(2).

147. Application to Labour Court : Where any dispute relating to classification or re-classification of a newspaper or a newspaper establishment arises out of any decision of the board, with modifications if any, and published under section 145(2), any person aggrieved by any such decision may apply to the labour court for adjudication and determination of the dispute.

148. Minimum wages to be binding on all employers : The minimum rates of wages declared under section 140 or published under section 145 shall be binding on all employers concerned and every worker shall be entitled to be paid wages at a rate which shall, in no case, be less than the rate of wages so declared or published.

149. Prohibition to pay wages at a rate below the minimum rate of wages : (1) No employer shall pay any worker wages at a rate lower than the rate declared or published under this Chapter to be the minimum rate of wages for such worker.

(2) Nothing in sub-section (1) shall be deemed to affect, in any way, the right of a worker to continue to receive wages at a rate higher than the minimum rate declared under this chapter, if, under any agreement or award or otherwise, he is entitled to receive wages at such higher rate, or to continue to enjoy such amenities and other advantages as are customary for such worker to enjoy.

CHAPTER : XII

 - (iii) the wilful removal or disregard by the worker of any safety guard or other device which he knew to have been provided for the purpose of securing the safety of worker. :

(3) If-

(a) worker employed in any employment specified in part-A of the third Schedule, attacked with any disease specified therein as an occupational disease peculiar to that of employment, or

(b) a worker, whilst in the service of an employer in whose service he has been employed for a continuous period of not less than six months in any employment specified in part- B of the Third schedule, contracts any disease specified therein as an occupational disease peculiar to that employment, the contracting of the disease shall be deemed to be an injury by accident within the meaning of this section, and, unless the employer proves the contrary, the accident shall be deemed to have arisen out of and in the course of the employment.

Explanation : For the purposes of this sub-section, a period of service shall be deemed to be continuous which has not included a period of service under any other employer in the same kind of employment.

(4) The Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, add any description of employment to the employment's specified in the Third Schedule and shall specify in the case of the employment's so added the diseases which shall be deemed for the purposes of this section to be occupational diseases peculiar to these employment's respectively, and the provision of sub-section (3) shall there upon apply as if such diseases had been declared by this chapter to be occupational diseases peculiar to those employment's.

(5) Save as provided by sub-section (3) and (4), no compensation shall be payable to a worker in respect of any disease unless the disease is directly attributable to a specific injury by accident arising out of and in the course of his employment.

(6) Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to confer any right to compensation on a worker in respect of any injury if he has instituted in a Civil court a suit for damages in respect of the injury against the employer or any other person;

(7) No suit for damages shall be maintainable by a worker in any court of law in respect of any injury-

- (a) if he has instituted a claim to compensation in respect of the injury before a labour court; or
- (b) if an agreement has been come to between the worker and his employer providing for the payment of compensation in respect of the injury in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter.

(8) For the purposes of this chapter, 'worker' means any person employed by the employer directly or through contractors who is-

- (a) the railway servant as defined in section 3 of the railways Act, 1890 (IX of 1890), who is not employed in any administrative, district or sub-divisional office of the railway and not employed in any such capacity as is specified in the Fourth Schedule, or
- (b) employed in any such capacity as is specified in the Fourth Schedule, whether the contract of employment is expressed or implied, oral or in writing; and any reference to a worker who has been injured shall, where the worker is dead, include a reference to his dependents or any of them.

Explanation- The exercise and performance of the powers and duties of a local authority or of any department acting on behalf of the government shall, for the purposes of this chapter, unless a contrary intention appears, be deemed to be the trade or business or such authority or department.

151. Amount of compensation : (1) Subject to the provisions of this chapter the amount of compensation shall be as follows, namely:

- (a) where death results from the injury, a worker in receipt of monthly wages falling within limits shown in the third column of the Fifth Schedule the amount shown against such limit thereof;
- (b) where permanent total disablement results from the injury-
 - (i) in the case of an adult limits shown in Fifth Schedule the amount shown against such limits in the third column thereof; and
 - (ii) in the case of a minor- taka ten thousand;
- (c) where permanent partial disablement results from the injury-
 - (i) in the case of an injury specified in the first schedule, such percentage of the compensation which would have been payable in the case of permanent total disablement's as is specified therein as being the percentage of the loss of earning capacity caused by that injury;
 - (ii) in the case of an injury not specified in the first schedule, such percentage of the compensation payable in the case of permanent total disablement as is proportionate to the loss of earning capacity permanently caused by the injury; and

- (d) where temporary disablement, whether total or partial, results from the injury, a monthly payment payable on the first day of the month following the month in which it is due after the expiry of a waiting period of four days disablement or during a period as specified in the last column of the fifth schedule; whichever period is shorter.

(2) Where more injuries than one are caused by the same accident, the amount of compensation payable under sub-section (1), (c) shall be aggregated but not so in any case as to exceed the amount which would have been payable if permanent total disablement had resulted from the injuries.

(3) On the ceasing of the disablement before the date on which any monthly payment falls due, there shall be payable in respect of that month a sum proportionate to the duration of the disablement in that month.

152. Method of calculating wages : (1) In this chapter and for the purpose thereof the expression 'monthly wages' means the amount of wages deemed to be payable for a month's service, whether the wages are payable by the month or by whatever other period or at piece rates,

(2) Such wages shall be calculated as follows, namely :

- (a) where the worker has, during a continuous period of not less than twelve months immediately preceding the accident, been in the service of the employer who is liable to pay compensation, the monthly wages of the worker shall be one-twelfth of the total wages to be paid to him by the employer in the last twelve months of that period;
- (b) where the whole of the continuous period of service immediately preceding the accident during which the worker was in the service of the employer who is liable to pay the compensation was less than one month, the monthly wages of the worker shall be the average monthly amount which, during the twelve months immediately preceding the accident, was being earned by a worker employed on the same work by the same employer, or, if there was no worker so employed on similar work in the locality;
- (c) in the cases, the monthly wages shall be thirty times the total wages earned in respect of the last continuous period of service immediately preceding the accident from the employer who is liable to pay compensation, divided by the number of days comprising such period.

Explanation : a period of service shall, for the purposes of this section, be deemed to be continuous which has not been interrupted by a period of absence from work exceeding fourteen days.

153. Review : (1) Any monthly payment payable under this chapter, either under an agreement between the parties or under the order of a Labour court, may be reviewed by the Labour court, if-

- (a) on the application either of the employer or of the worker accompanied by the certificate of a registered medical practitioner that there has been a change in the condition of the worker, or

(b) on such application without medical certificate on the ground that the determination of compensation was obtained by fraud or under influence or other improper mean or that in such determination there is a mistake or error apparent on the face of the record.

(2) Any monthly payment may, on review under this section, subject to the provisions of this chapter, be continued, increased, decreased or ended, or if the accident is found to have resulted in permanent disablement, be converted to the lump sum to which the worker is entitled less any amount which he has already received by way of monthly payment.

154. Commutation of monthly payments : (1) The employer may pay lump sum amount as monthly payments, by agreement between the parties or,

(2) If the parties do not agree as such and the payments have been continued for not less than six months, on the application of either party to the Labour court be redeemed by the payment a lump sum of such amount as may be determined by the Labour court.

155. Distribution of compensation : (1) No payment of compensation in respect of a worker whose injury has resulted in death, and no payment of a lump sum as compensation to a person under a legal disability, shall be made otherwise than by deposit with labour court.

(2) No such payment made directly by an employer shall be deemed to be a payment of compensation under subsection (12), unless a worker, during the periods of his employment, nominated in the prescribed manner any of his dependents to receive the amount of compensation in the even of an injury resulting in his death:

(3) Not with standing anything contained in sub-section (1), in the case of a deceased worker, an employer may make to any dependent advances on account of compensation and such advances shall be deducted by the labour court from the compensation payable to that dependent and repaid to the employer.

(4) Any other sum which is payable as compensation may be deposited with the labour court on behalf of the person entitled thereto.,

(5) The receipt of the Labour court shall be a sufficient discharge in respect of any compensation deposited with it.

(6) On the deposit of any money under sub-section (1) as compensation in respect of a deceased worker, the Labour court shall, if it thinks necessary, cause notice to be published or to be serviced on each dependent in such manner as it thinks, fit, calling upon the dependents to appear before it on such date as it may fix for determining the distribution of the compensation.

(7) If the labour court is satisfied after any enquiry which it may deem necessary, that no dependant exists, it shall not less than two years after the date of deposit, transfer the balance of the money to such fund or funds for the benefit of workers as the Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, specify or establish.

(8) The labour court shall on application by the employer, furnish a statement showing in detailed all disbursements made.

(9) Compensation deposited in respect of a deceased worker shall, subject to any deduction made under the proviso to sub-section (1), be apportioned among the dependents of the deceased worker or any of them in such proportion as the labour court thinks fit, or may, in the discretion of the labour court, be allotted to any one dependant.

(10) Where any compensation deposited with the Labour court is payable to any person, the labour court shall if the person to whom the compensation is payable is not a person under a legal disability, and may, in other cases, pay the money to the person entitled thereto.

(11) Where any lump sum deposited with the Labour court is payable to a person under a legal disability, such sum may be invested, applied or otherwise dealt with for the benefit of such person during his disability, in such manner as the Labour court may direct.

(12) Where a half monthly payment is payable to any person under a legal disability the labour court may, of its own motion or on an application made to it in this behalf, order that the payment be made during the disability to any dependant of the worker or to any other person whom the labour court thinks best fitted to provide for the welfare of the worker.

(13) Where, on application made to it in this behalf or otherwise, the labour court is satisfied that, on account of neglect of children on the part of a parent or on account of the variation of the circumstances of any dependent or for any other sufficient cause, and order of the labour court as to the distribution of any sum paid as Compensation or as to the manner in which any sum payable to any such dependant is to be invested, applied or otherwise dealt with, ought to be varied, the Labour court may make such order for the variation of the former order as it thinks just in the circumstances of the case:

Provided that no such order prejudicial to any person shall be made unless such person has been given an opportunity of showing cause why the order showing cause why the order should not be made, or shall be made in any case in which it would involve the repayment by a dependant of any sum already paid to him.

(14) Where the Labour court varies any order under sub-section (13) by reason of the fact that payment of compensation to any person has been obtained by fraud, impersonation or other improper means, any amount so paid to or on behalf of such person may be recovered in the manner here in after provided in section 329.

156. Compensation not to be assigned, attached or charged : Save as provided by this chapter, no lump sum or monthly payment payable under the chapter shall in any way, be capable of being assigned or charged or be liable to attachment or pass to any person other than the worker by operation of law, nor shall any claim be set off against same.

157. Notice and claim : No claim for compensation shall be entertained by a labour court unless notice of the accident has been given in the manner herein after provided as soon as practicable after the happening thereof and unless the claim is preferred before it within two years of the occurrence of the accident or in case of death, within two years from the date of death.

(2) Where the accident is the contracting of a disease in respect of which the provisions of section 150 (3) are applicable, the accident shall be deemed to have occurred on the first of the days during which the worker was continuously absent from work in consequence of the disablement caused by the disease.

(3) The want of or any defect or irregularity in a notice shall not be a bar to the entertainment of a claim-

(a) if the claim is preferred in respect of the death of a worker resulting from an accident-

- (i) which occurred on the premises of the employer, or
- (ii) at any place where the worker at the time of the accident was working under the control of the employer or of any person employed by him, and the worker died on such premises or at such place, or on any premises belonging to the employer, or died without having left the vicinity of the premises or place where the accident occurred, or

(b) if the employer of any one of several employers of any person responsible to the employer for the management of any branch of the trade or business in which the injured worker was employed had knowledge of the accident from any other source at or about the time when it occurred.

(4) The Labour court may entertain and decide any claim to compensation in any case notwithstanding that the notice has not been given, or the claim has not been preferred, in due time, as provided in the preceding sub-section if it is satisfied that the failure so to give the notice or prefer the claim as the case may be, was due to sufficient cause.

(5) Every such notice shall give the name and address of the person injured and shall state in ordinary language the cause of the injury and the date on which the accident happened and shall be served on the employer or upon any one of several employers, or upon any person responsible to the employer for the management of any branch of the trade or business in which the injured worker was employed.

(6) A notice under this section may be served by delivering it at or sending it by registered post addressed to the residence or any office or place of business of the person on whom it is to be served, or, where a notice-book is maintained, by entry in the notice-book.

158. Power to require from employers statements regarding fatal accidents : (1) Where a labour Court receives information from any source that a worker has died as a result of an accident arising out of and in the course of his employment, it may send by registered post a notice to the worker's employer requiring him to submit, within thirty days of the service of the notice, a statement, in the prescribed form, giving the circumstances attending the death of the worker, and indicating whether, in the opinion of the employee, he is or is not liable to deposit compensation on account of the death,

(2) If the employer is of opinion that he is liable to deposit compensation, he shall make the deposit within thirty days of the service of the notice.

(3) If the employer is of opinion that he is liable to deposit compensation, he shall, in his statement, indicate the grounds on which he disclaimed liability.

(4) Where the employer has so disclaimed liability, the Labour Court, after such enquiry as it may think fit, may inform any of the dependents of the deceased worker that it is open to the dependents to prefer a claim for compensation, and may give them such other further information as it may think fit.

159. Reports of fatal accidents : Where, by any law for the time being in force, notice is required to be given to any authority, by or on behalf of an employer, of any accident occurring on his premises which results in death the person required to give the notice shall, within seven days of the death, send a report to the Labour Court giving the circumstances attending the death.

160. Medical examination : (1) Where a worker has given notice of an accident, the employer shall before the expiry of three days from the time at which service of the notice has been affected, have the worker examined free of charge by a registered medical practitioner, and the worker shall submit himself for such examination,

Provided that where the accident or illness of the worker is of grave nature, the employer shall cause the examination at the place where the workers is.

(2) under this chapter and any worker who is in receipt of a monthly payment under this chapter, shall if so required, submit himself for such examination from time to time.

(3) Where a worker is not examined free of charge as aforesaid, he may get himself examined by a registered medical practitioner and the expenses of such medical examination shall be mutatis-mutandis reimbursed to the worker by the employer.

(4) A worker shall not be required to submit for examination by a registered medical practitioner under sub-section (1) or (2) otherwise than in accordance with rules made under this chapter, or at more frequent interval than may be prescribe.

(5) If a worker, on being required to do so by the employer under sub-section (1) or (2) by the labour court at any time, refuses to submit himself for examination by a registered medical practitioner or in any way obstructs the same, his right to compensation shall be suspended during the continuance of such refusal or obstruction unless, in the case of refusal, he was prevented by any sufficient cause from so submitting himself.

(6) If a worker, before the expiry of the period within which he is liable under sub-section (1) or (2) to be required to submit himself for medical examination, voluntarily leaves without having been so examined the vicinity of the place in which he was employed, his right to compensation shall be suspended until he returns and offers himself for such examination.

(7) Where a worker, whose right to compensation has been suspended under sub-section (5) or (6), dies without having submitted himself for medical examination as required by either of those sub-sections, the Labour Court may, if it thinks fit, direct the payment of compensation to the dependents of the deceased worker.

(8) Where under sub-section (4) or (5) a right to compensation is suspended, no compensation shall be payable in respect of the period of suspension, and, if the period of suspension commences before the expiry of the waiting period referred to in section 151(1) (d), the waiting period shall be increased by the period during which the suspension continues.

(9) Where an injured worker has refused to be attended by a registered medical practitioner whose services have been offered to him by the employer free of charge or having accepted such offer has deliberately disregarded the instructions of such medical practitioner, then, if it is proved that the worker has not thereafter been regularly attended by a registered medical practitioner or having been so attended has deliberately failed to follow his instructions and that such refusal, disregard or failure was unreasonable in the circumstances of the case and that the injury has been aggravated thereby, the injury and resulting disablement shall be deemed to be of the same nature and duration as they might reasonable have been expected to be if the worker had been regularly attended by a registered medical practitioner whose instructions he had followed and compensation, if any, shall be payable accordingly.

(10) Where an employer or an injured worker is not satisfied with the report of the medical examination by a registered medical practitioner he may refer the case for re-examination by a medical specialist at least of the rank of an Associate Professor of a Medical college, and the expenses of such examination shall be borne by the employer or the worker, as the case may be.

161. Compensation on contracting : (1) Where any person, here in after in this section referred to as the principal, in the course of or for the purposes of his trade or business contracts with any other person, hereinafter in this section referred to as the contractor, for the execution by or under the contractor of the whole or any part of any work which is ordinarily part of the trade or business of the principal, the principal shall be liable to pay to any worker employed in the execution of the work any compensation which he would have been liable to pay if that worker had been immediately employed y him; and where compensation is claimed from the principal, this chapter shall apply as if reference to the principal were substitute for references to the employer expect that the amount of compensation shall be calculated with reference to the wages of the worker under the employer b y whom he is immediately employed.

(2) Where the principal is liable to pay compensation under this section, he shall be entitled to be indemnified by the contractor, any other person from whom the worker could have recovered compensation and where a contractor who is himself a principal is liable to pay compensation or to indemnify a principal under this section be entitled to be indemnified by any person standing to him in the relation of a contractor from whom the worker could have recovered compensation and all questions as to the right to and the amount of any such indemnity shall, in default of agreement, be settled by the Labour 'Court.

162. Insolvency of employer : (1) Where any employer has entered into a contract with any insurers in respect of any liability under this Chapter to any worker, then in the event of the employer becoming insolvent or making a composition or scheme of arrangement with his creditors or, if the employer is a company, in the event of the company having commenced to be wound up, the rights of the employer against the insurers as respects that liability shall, not with standing anything in any law for the time being in force relating to insolvency or the winding up of companies, be transferred to and vest in the worker, and upon any such transfer the insurers shall have the same rights and remedies and be subject to the same liabilities as if they were the employer, so however, that the insurers shall not be under any greater liability to the worker than they would have been under to the employer.

(2) If the liability of the insurers to the worker is less than the employer to the worker, the worker may prove for the balance in the insolvency proceedings or liquidation.

(3) Where in any case such as is referred to in sub-section (1), the contract of the employer with the insurers is void or voidable by reason of non-compliance on the part of the employer with any terms or conditions of the contract, other than a stipulation for the payment of premium, the provisions of that sub-section shall apply as if the contract were not void or voidable, and the insurers shall be entitled to prove in the insolvency proceedings or Liquidation for the amount paid to the worker:

Provided that the provisions of this sub-section shall not apply in any case in which the worker fail to give notice to the insurers of the happening of the accident and of any resulting disablement as soon as practicable after he becomes aware of the institution of the insolvency or Liquidation proceedings.

(4) There shall be deemed to be included among the debts which under section 49 or the Insolvency (Ireland) Act, 1909 (III of 1909), or under section 61 of the Insolvency Act, 1920 (v of 1920), are in the distribution of the property of an insolvent or in the distribution of the assets of a company being wound up to be paid in priority to all other debts, the amount due in respect of any compensation the liability where for accrued before the date of the order of adjudication of the insolvent or the date of the commencement of the winding up, as the case may be, and those Acts shall have effects accordingly.

(5) Where the compensation is a monthly payment, the amount due in respect thereof shall, for the purposes of this section, be taken to be the amount of the lump sum for which the monthly payment could, if redeemable, be redeemed if application were made for that purpose under section 151, and a certificate of the Labour Court as to the amount of such sum shall be conclusive proof thereof.

(6) The provisions of sub-section (4) shall apply in the case of any amount for which an insurer is entitled to prove under sub-section (3), but otherwise those provisions shall not apply where the insolvent or the company being wound up has entered into such a contract with insurers as is referred to in sub-section (1).

(7) This section shall not apply where a company is wound up voluntarily for the purposes of reconstruction or of amalgamation with another company.

163. Special provision relating to masters and seamen : (1) This chapter shall apply in the case of workers who are masters of ships or seamen subject to the following modifications, namely:

(2) The notice of the accident and the claim for compensation may, except where the person injured is the master of the ship, be served on the master of the ship as if he were the employer, but where the accident happened and the disablement commenced on board the ship, it shall not be necessary for any seaman to give any notice of the accident.

(3) In the case of the death of a master or seaman, the claim for compensation shall be made within six months after the news of the death has been received by the claimant or, where the ship has been or is deemed to have been last with all hands, within eighteen months the date on which the ship was, or is deemed to have been, so lost.

(4) Where an injured master or seaman is discharged or left behind in a foreign country, any depositions taken by any judge or Magistrate in that part or by any consular officer in the foreign country and transmitted by the person proceedings for enforcing the claim, be admissible in evidence, if-

- (a) the deposition is authenticated by the signature of the judge, Magistrate or consular officer before whom it is made;
- (b) the defendant or the person accused, as the case may be, had an opportunity by himself or his agent to cross-examine the witnesses; and
- (c) the deposition was made in the course of a criminal proceeding on proof that the deposition was made in the presence of the person accused;

And it shall not be necessary in any case to prove the signature or official character of the person appearing to have signed any such deposition and a certificate by such person that the defendant or the person accused had an opportunity of cross examining the witness and that the deposition if made in a criminal proceeding was made in the presence of the person accused shall, unless the contrary is proved, be sufficient evidence that opportunity and that it was so made.

(5) No monthly payment shall be payable in respect of the period during which the owner of the ship is, under any law in force for the time being in Bangladesh relating to merchant shipping, liable to defray the expenses of maintenance of the injured master or seaman.

(6) No compensation shall be payable under this Chapter in respect of any injury in respect of which provision is made for payment of a gratuity, allowance or pension under the war Pensions and Detention Allowances (Mercantile Marine, etc.) Scheme, 1939, or the War pensions and Detention allowances (Indian seamen, etc.) Scheme, 1941, made under the pensions (Navy, Army, air Force and Mercantile Marine) Act, 1939, or under the War pensions and detention allowances (Indian seamen) scheme, 1942, made by the Government.

(7) Failure to give a notice or made a claim or commence proceeding within the time required by this chapter shall not be a bar to the maintenance of proceedings under this chapter in respect of any personal injury, if-

- (a) an application has been made for payment in respect of that injury under any of the schemes referred to in the preceding clause, and
- (b) the Government certifies that the said application was made in the reasonable belief that the injury was one in respect of which the scheme under which the application was made, makes provision for payment, and that the application was rejected or that payments made in pursuance of the application were discontinued on the ground that the injury was not such an injury, and
- (c) the proceedings under this chapter are commenced within one month from the date on which the said certificate of the Government was furnished to the person commencing the proceedings.

164. Returns as to compensation : The Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, direct that every person employing workers, or that any specified class of such persons, shall send at such time and in such form and to such authority, as may be specified in the notification, a correct return specifying the number of injuries in respect of which compensation has been paid by the employer during the previous year and the amount of such compensation, together with such other particulars as to the compensation as the Government may direct.

165. Contracting out : Any contract of agreement, whether made before or after the commencement of this chapter, whereby a worker relinquishes any right of compensation from the employer for personal injury arising out of or in the course of the employment, shall be null and void in so far as it purports to remove or reduce the liability of any person to pay compensation under this chapter.

166. Reference to Labour courts : (1) If any question arises in any proceedings under this chapter as to the liability of any person to pay compensation, including any question as to whether a person injured is or is not a worker, or as to the amount or duration of compensation, including any question as to the nature or extent of disablement, the question shall, in default of agreement, be settled by a Labour court.

(2) No civil court shall have jurisdiction to settle, decide or deal with any question which is by or under this chapter required to be settled, decided or dealt with by a labour court or to enforce any liability incurred under this chapter.

167. Venue of Proceedings : Where any matter is under this chapter to be done by or before a Labour court, the same shall subject to the provisions of this chapter and any rules be done by or before a labour court having jurisdiction in the injury area in which the accident took place which resulted in the injury:

Provided that, where the worker is the master of a ship or a seaman, any such matter may be done by or before a Labour court having jurisdiction in the area in which the owner or agent of the ship resides or carries on business.

168. Condition of application : No application for the settlement of any matter by a labour court under this chapter, other than an application by a dependant for compensation, shall be made unless and until some question has arisen between the parties in connection therewith which they have been unable to settle by agreement.

169. Power of Labour Court to require further deposit in cases of fatal accident : (1) Where any sum has been deposited by an employer as compensation payable in respect of a worker whose injury has resulted in death, and in the opinion of the Labour Court such sum is insufficient, the Labour Court may, by notice in writing stating its reasons, call upon the employer to show cause why he should not make a further deposit within such time as may be stated in the notice.

(2) If the employer fails to show cause to the satisfaction of the Labour court, the Labour court may make an award determining the total amount payable, and requiring the employer to deposit the deficiency.

170. Registration of agreements : (1) Where the amount of any lump sum payable as compensation has been settled by agreement, whether by way of redemption of a monthly payment or otherwise, whether by way of redemption of a monthly payment or otherwise, or where any compensation has been so settled as being payable to a person under a legal disability a memorandum thereof shall be sent by the employer to the Labour court, which shall, on being satisfied as to its genuineness, record the memorandum in a register in the prescribed manner:

Provided that-

- (a) no such memorandum shall be recorded before seven days after communication by the Labour Court of notice to the parties concerned;
- (b) the Labour court may at any time rectify the register;
- (c) where it appears to the Labour court that an agreement as to the payment of a lump sum whether by way of redemption of redemption of a monthly payment or otherwise, or an agreement as the amount of compensation payable to a person under a legal disability ought not to be register by reason of the inadequacy of the sum or amount, or by reason of the agreement having been obtained by fraud or undue influence or other improper means, it may make such of order including an order as to any sum already paid under the agreement, a it thinks just in the circumstances.

(2) An agreement for the payment of compensation which has been registered under sub-section (1) shall be enforceable under this Act notwithstanding anything contained in the contract Act, 1872 (IV of 1872), or in may other law for the time being in force.

171. Effect of failure to register agreement : Where a memorandum of any agreement the registration of which is required by section 170, is not sent to the Labour court as required by that section, the employer shall be liable to pay the full amount of compensation which he is liable to pay under the provisions of this chapter, and shall not, unless the Labour court other wise directs, be entitled to deduct more than half of any amount paid to the worker by way of compensation whether under the agreement or otherwise.

172. Appeals : (1) An appeal shall lie to the Tribunal from the following orders of a Labour Court under this Chapter, namely:

- (a) an order awarding as compensation a lump sum whether by way of redemption of a monthly payment or otherwise or disallowing a claim in full or in part for a lump sum;
- (b) an order refusing to allow redemption of a monthly payment;
- (c) an order providing for the distribution of compensation among the dependents of a deceased worker, or disallowing any claim of a person alleging himself to be such dependant;
- (d) an order allowing or disallowing any claim for the amount of an indemnity under the provisions of section 161 (2);
- (e) an order refusing to register a memorandum of agreement or registering the same or providing for the registration of the same subject to conditions; or
- (f) an order under section 155 (7).

(2) No appeal shall lie in any case in which the parties have agreed to abide by the decision of the Labour court, or in which the order of the Labour court gives effect to an agreement come to by the parties.

(3) No apparels by an employer under sub-section (1) (a) shall lie unless the memorandum of appeal is accompanied by a certificate by the Labour court to the effect that the appellant has deposited with it the amount payable under the order appealed against.

(4) No appeal shall lie against any order unless a substantial question of law is involved in the appeal and, in the case of an order other than an order such as is referred to in sub-section (1) (b) unless the amount in dispute in the appeal is not less than one thousand taka.

(5) The period of limitation for an appeal under this section shall be sixty days.

(6) The provisions of section 5 of the Limitation Act. 1908 (IX of 1908), shall be applicable to appeals under this section.

173. Withholding of certain payments pending decision of appeal : Where an employer makes an appeal under section 172 (1) (a), the Labour court may, and if so directed by the Tribunal shall, pending the decision of the appeal, withhold payment of any sum in deposit with it.

174. Rules to give effect to arrangement with other countries for the transfer of money paid as compensation : (1) The Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, make rules-

- (a) for the transfer to any other country of money deposited with a Labour Court under this Chapter which has been awarded to, or may be due to, any person residing or about to reside in Bangladesh.
- (b) and for the receipt, distribution and administration in Bangladesh of any money deposited under the law relating to worker' compensation in any other country, which has been awarded to, or may be due to, any person residing or about to reside in Bangladesh:

Provided that no sum deposited under this chapter in respect of total accidents shall be so transferred without the consent of the employer concerned until the Labour Court receiving the sum has passed orders determining its distribution and apportionment under the provisions of section 155(4) and (5).

(2) Where money deposited with a Labour court has been so transferred in accordance with the rules made under this section, the provisions elsewhere contained in this chapter regarding distribution by the Labour Court of compensation deposited with it shall cease to apply in respect of any such money.

CHAPTER – XIII

200. Registration of federation of trade unions: (1) Any two or more registries trade unions formed in establishment engaged ,or currying on similar or identical industry may, if heir respective general bodies so resolved , constitute a federation by executing an instrument of federation and apply for the registration of the federation :

Provided that a trade union of workers shall not join a federation which comprises a trade union of employers nor shall a trade union of employers join a federation which comprises a trade union of workers.

(2) An instrument of federation referred to in sub-section (1) shall, among other things, provide for the procures to be followed by the federate trade unions and rights and responsibilities of the federation and the federated trade unions.

(3) An application for the registration of a federation of trade unions shall be signed by the President of all the trade unions constituting the federation or by the officers of these trade unions respectively authorized by the trade unions in this behalf and shall be accompanied by three copies of the instrument of federation referred to in sub-section (1).

(4) Subject to this Chapter shall .so far as may be and with necessary modifications, apply to a federation of trade union as they apply to a trade union.

(5) Notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing sub-sections not less than 20 trade unions formed in different types of industries may .jointly .constitute a federation on national basis.

201. Returns : (1) There shall be sent annually to the Director, on or before the 30th April of the following year a general statement audited in the prescribed manner, of all receipts and expenditure and of the assets and liabilities of every trade union during the preceding calendar year.

(2) Together with the general statement, there shall be sent to the Director of Labour a statement showing all changes of officers made by the trade union during the year to which the general statement refers, together with a copy of the constitution of the trade union corrected up to the date.

(3) If a registered trade union fails to send the general statement within the time specified in sub-section (1), the Director of Labour shall, by a notice, inform the union of such failure, and if the union fails to submit the general statement within thirty days of the receipt of such notice, its registration shall be liable to be cancelled.

(4) In case the trade union is member of a federation, the name of the federation shall be given in the general statement.

202. Collective bargaining agent : (1) Where there is only one trade union in an establishment, that trade union shall, be deemed to be collective bargaining agent for such for such establishment.

(2) Where there are more trade unions than one in an establishment, the Director of Labour shall, upon an application made in this behalf by any such trade union or by the employer, hold a secret ballot, within a period of not more than one hundred and twenty days from the date of receipt of such application, to determine as to which one of such trade unions shall be the collective bargaining agent for the establishment.

(3) Upon receipt of an application under sub-section (2) the director of Labour shall, by notice in writing call upon every trade union in the establishment to which the application relates to indicate, within such time, not exceeding fifteen days, as may be specified in the notice, whether it desires to be a contestant in the secret ballot to be held for determining the collective bargaining agent in relation to the establishment.

(4) If a trade union fails to indicate, within the time specified in the notice, its desire to be a contestant in the secret ballot, it shall be presumed that it shall not be a contestant in such ballot.

(5) If no trade union indicates, within the time specified in the notice, its desire to be a contestant in the secret ballot, the trade union which has made the application shall be declared to be the collective bargaining agent in relation to the establishment concerned, provided it has as its members not less than one-third of the total number of workers employed in the establishment.

(6) Every employer shall on being so required by the Director of labour, submit to him a list of all workers employed in the establishment for not less than a period of three months in the establishment excluding those who are casual or badly workers, and the list shall contain the following particulars; namely:

(7) on being so required Director of Labour, every employer shall submit to the Director of Labour requisite number of additional copies of the list of workers mentioned in sub-section (6) and shall provide such facilities for verification of the list submitted by him.

(8) On receipt of the list of workers from the employer, the director of Labour shall send a copy of the list to each of the contesting trade unions and shall also affix a copy thereof in a conspicuous part of his office and another copy of the list in a conspicuous part of the establishment concerned, together with a notice inviting objections, if any, to be submitted to him within such time as may be specified by him.

(9) The objections, if any, received by the director of Labour within the specified time shall be disposed of by him after necessary enquiry.

(10) The Director of labour shall make such amendments, alterations or modifications in the list of workers submitted by the employer as may be required by any decision given by him on objections under sub-section (9).

(11) After amendments, alteration of modification, if any, made under sub-section (10), or where no objections are received by the director of Labour within the specified time the director of Labour shall prepare a list of worker employed in the establishment concerned duly certified and send copies thereof to the employer and such of the contesting trade unions at least seven days prior to the date fixed for poll.

(12) The list of workers prepared and certified under sub-section (11), shall be deemed to be the list of voters, and every worker whose name appears in that list shall be entitled to vote in the poll to determine the collective bargaining agent.

(13) Every employer shall provide all such facilities in his establishment as may be required by the director of labour for the conduct of the poll but shall not interfere with, or in any way influence the voting.

(14) No person shall canvas for vote within a radius of forty-five meters of the polling stations.

(15) For the purpose of holding secret ballot to determine the collective bargaining agent, the Director of Labour shall-

- (a) fix the date for the poll and intimate the same to each of the contesting trade unions and also to every employer;
- (b) on the date fixed for the poll to place in the polling station set up for the purpose the ballot boxes which shall be sealed in the presence of the representatives of the contesting trade unions as to receive the ballot papers.
- (c) Conduct the poll at the polling stations at which the representatives of the contesting trade unions shall have the right to be present;
- (d) After the conclusion of the poll and in the presence of such of the representatives of the contesting trade unions as may be present, open the ballot boxes and count the votes; and
- (e) After the conclusion of the count, declare the trade union which has received the highest number of votes to be the collective bargaining agent;

Provided that no trade union shall be declared to be the collective bargaining agent for an establishment unless the number of votes received by it is not less than one third of the total number of workers employed in such establishment.

(16) Where a registered trade union has been declared under sub-section (14) (e) to be the collective bargaining agent for an establishment, it shall be such collective bargaining agent for a period of two years and no application for the determination of the collective bargaining agent for such establishment shall be entertained within a period of two years from the date of such declaration : provided that, in the case of a group of establishments, the trade union declared to be the collective bargaining agent therefore shall be such collective bargaining agent for three years.

(17) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (16), where a registered trade union desires to be the collective bargaining agent for an establishment after the expiry of the terms of an existing collective bargaining agent or where an existing Collective bargaining agent desires to continue as such for the next term, it may make an application to the director of Labour, not earlier than one hundred and fifty days and not later than one hundred and twenty days immediately before the expiry of the term of the existing collective bargaining agent, to hold a secret ballot to determine the next collective bargaining agent for the establishment.

(18) Where an application under sub-section (17) is made, a secret ballot to determine the next collective bargaining agent shall be held within one hundred and twenty days from the receipt of such application, but the trade union declared to be the next collective bargaining agent shall be the collective bargaining agent from the date of expiry of the term of the existing collective bargaining agent.

(19) Where after an application made under sub-section (17) a collective bargaining agent has not been determined for reasons beyond the control of the director of Labour before the expiry of the term of the existing collective bargaining agent, the existing collective bargaining agent shall continue to function as such till a new collective bargaining agent is determined.

(20) Where no application is made under sub-section (17), the director of Labour may, after the expiry of the term of the existing collective bargaining agent, recognize such collective bargaining agent or any registered trade union to act as collective bargaining agent for the establishment unless a registered trade union is deemed to be a collective bargaining agent for the establishment under sub-section (1) or until a collective bargaining agent is determined by secret ballot under the foregoing provisions of this section, as the case may be.

(21) Any dispute arising out of any matter in relation to an election for determination of collective bargaining agent shall be referred to the Labour court, and the decision of the Labour court thereon shall be final.

(22) If in any election for determination of collective bargaining agent any contesting trade union receives less than ten percent of the total votes cast, the registration of the trade union shall stand canceled.
